

Fr Jack Noble

Fr Jack has been appointed Chaplain and Assistant Curate of St Marylebone in succession to Fr Edward Thornley who leave in the summer of 2018 to be Chaplain to All Saints' Episcopal School in Fort Worth, Texas.

Currently, Fr Jack is the Assistant Curate of the busy and increasingly diverse suburban parish of St Martin of Tours, Ruislip.

Jack has been involved in every aspect of parish ministry including the life of local church schools (primary and secondary) and outreach and provision for young people and families.

"I am passionate about young people and their flourishing. I am also committed to the mission and life of the local church. I am very excited about the prospect of living out these commitments at St Marylebone."

We hope to welcome Fr Jack to St Marylebone in late July/early August 2018.

After reading History at the University of Bristol, Jack went on to study for the priesthood at The College of the Resurrection, Mirfield where he undertook further academic studies at the University of Sheffield.

Fr Jack is a Trustee of the organization ACross Country, a small UK Christian charity that serves refugees and asylum seekers by creating: "A place of adventure and stillness to be more fully ourselves with others, our world and with God" and was a volunteer speaker for The Leprosy Mission. Jack is also involved in the charity 'Tariro' which seeks to care for, home and educate underprivileged young people in Zimbabwe.

Among his hobbies, Jack lists food, conversation, friendship, walking, discovering new music, gardening and reading to relax.

St Martin of Tours, Ruislip